Rules & Regulations

1. All awards and scholarships are open to any student entering a post-secondary institution in the year following their grade 12 year unless otherwise posted.
2. Only those courses taken in-class at Holy Redeemer will be used in the calculation of award averages.
3. If a student is not entering a post-secondary institution in the year following their grade 12 year, the award or scholarship shall be held over for them for one year in their name. If the student does not claim this award at this time, the award shall be presented to the second place candidate from the student's graduating year.
4. With the exception of awards for the highest grade in the course students are asked to apply for awards. Only the recipient will be contacted with a response.
5. On awards night, award recipients will receive a letter congratulating them on their achievement, as well as asking them for a letter from their post-secondary institution giving proof of enrolment.
6. In the event of a tie, one of two things will occur:
 - a. Upon permission of the donor, each recipient will receive the full amount.
 - b. In the event the donor does not increase the amount, the award or scholarship money will be divided between the candidates.
7. Recipients are expected to write a note of thanks to the donor.

Tips for Applying for Scholarships

- Start your search early – Begin your search early in the school year. You can even start searching in grade 11!
- Do lots of research. The websites listed below are a good place to start.
- Check out post-secondary scholarships – Each post-secondary institution has scholarships specific to their school. Some links to post-secondary institutions are listed below.
- Check out the application deadline.
 - Some deadlines are early in the year while others are not until the end of the school year.
 - Current applications tend to arrive 4 – 6 weeks before the application deadline.
 - Make sure you have the current years application.
 - Deadlines change from year to year so check regularly
- Plan ahead - It takes time to get letters of recommendation, transcripts, make copies of files, write essays, etc. for each scholarship.
- Be organized – Review deadlines and requirements, read instructions carefully, answer completely and include all information required.
- Expand your list of possibilities – Check out credit unions, your workplace, your parent’s workplace, professional groups in your community, the church you belong to, oil companies in your area, local grocery stores, local volunteer agencies, etc.
- Apply, Apply, Apply – apply for any scholarships that you qualify for. Use your time wisely and apply to those that you have a shot at.
